GIYS 2022: WHAT TO EXPECT IN-PERSON

The Global Indigenous Youth Summit (GIYS) will be held from June 1 – June 4 this summer at YMCA Camp Marrowbone on the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe Reservation. Our in-person experience include keynotes, breakout sessions, summer outdoor activities, a penny auction, and our first ever Powwow featuring summit participants, local artists and dancers all competing for cash prizes!

WHO SHOULD COME TO GIYS?

Youth Participants:

Individuals between the ages of 13-19 can participate as presenters, Powwow performers, or general summit participants!

YMCA Staff and Volunteers:

Anyone who works or volunteers in the YMCA community can participate as facilitators, small group leaders, or presenters as well as Powwow performers!

Non-YMCA Adults:

These are individuals over the age of 19 interested in presenting on cultural practices, topics relating to Indigenous communities, or in assisting with running the Powwow and learning more about the Sioux YMCA!

INTERESTED IN PRESENTING?

If you are interested in leading a session, here is what we are looking for:

- > an impactful story about work done in your community
- > a presentation of a custom in your own culture
- > a lesson on history you are passionate about
- > additional ideas welcome!

Email giys@siouxymca.org for more information!
